Pastors Notes

From the desk of Pastor Bob

1. What Are We Good At?

Most churches are good at what they love to do the most

2. What needs more attention?

Who likes to focus on their weakness, but no one is perfect

3. Within our community who needs our help the most?

A growing church will identify the needs of the surrounding community

4. Do our members agree on the purpose of our mission

It is really important for our members to AGREE on our mission

5. Are we fulfilling our mission

Growing churches frequently ask, "Are we fulfilling our mission."

6. How do we measure the effectiveness of our mission

Growing churches will determine how to measure their effectiveness

7. What percentage of our members participate in our missions?

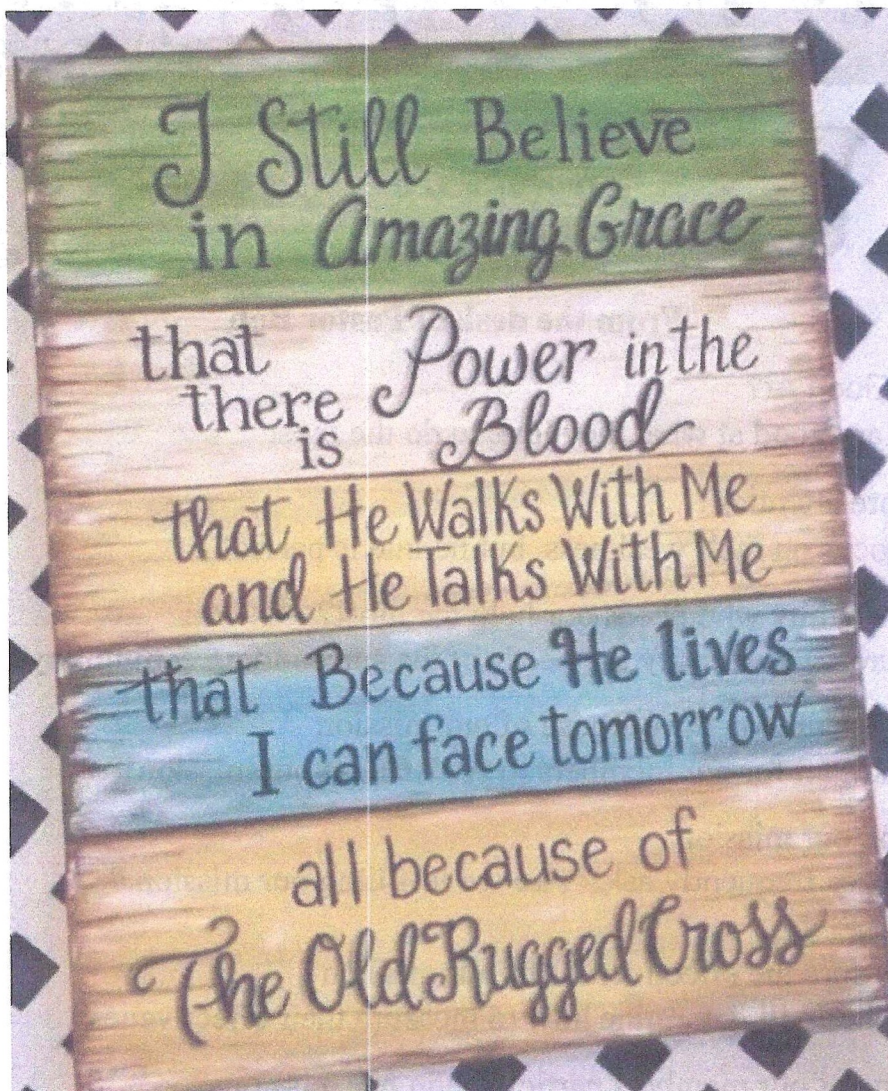

Healthy churches require strong support from a majority of its members

8. Do the pastor and congregation enjoy working together
If the pastor doesn't love the congregation, it's time to get a new pastor

9. Do members clearly understanding our mission
When Members know the mission, they are more likely to get involved
